Public Comment Policy

Time is reserved near the beginning of each Library Board meeting for public comment. Public comment is limited to this period.

Each person who speaks must state their name and address for the public record, and limit their comments to three minutes. A total of up to 30 minutes will be allotted per meeting for public comment.

Trustees will not engage in dialogue nor ask or answer questions during the public comment period.

Comments should not include discussion of personnel matters. Individuals can submit such comments in writing to the Library Director or Board President.

Adopted by the Board of Trustees of the Wauwatosa Public Library on November 18, 2020.

Revised by the Board of Trustees of the Wauwatosa Public Library on February 21, 2024.
